A great accountancy company

50 Jul 2020

Andy ~

I joined Nixon Williams when I started contracting 3 years ago and they have been great. Always helpful and answer any question I have promptly. Having my own point of contact with them is great and really helps with continuity.

Lucie my accountant has been great throughout and no question was ever too much trouble for her to answer thanks.

I would happily recommend them to my friends and colleagues.

If you are considering joining them just give them a call and you'll see what I mean. As a last point, the Vantage online system to view your entire business in a single view is absolutely brilliant.

Outstanding Service

Smart Talk: ~

I have been with Clearsky for a number of years and have always been impressed by their high standards and quality. I personally deal with Joanne Thorne and cant speak highly enough of her and her team. Clearsky offer a very 'human' service, take time to understand your needs as a client and the great thing is you can speak to them whenever you have a question or need additional support. As a small business owner its also great to have access to their online accounting portal which makes things simple and efficient. I highly recommend having a chat with Clearsky if you are looking for better value from your accountancy service.

5 Star. I love my accountant Jenny W!! Gives me peace of mind knowing that she notifies me of all the tax payments I need to make and when. She is always there to advise me on the best options for my circumstances. So overall great service! Really, I have nothing to complain about and I'm usually a picky customer but my collaboration with SJD has been very smooth. They are professional, reliable and helpful.

Been with Parasol since March 2020

24 Jul 2020

Been with Parasol since March 2020. Been really impressed with all aspects of this company and supporting me on my 1st contracting role. Most recently Charlotte has been brilliant in helping to set up my pension contributions. Her responses have been helpful, informative and very quick. She has answered all my questions and followed through on actions and referrals. Excellent service. Thanks

I will give you a basic overview about what they are, how they work, and who needs one. I will also share some additional resources you can read to learn more about them. What is a Family Care Plan? It is a plan detailing what a soldier will do with their dependent children if they are deployed, attending military school, attending Annual Training, on TDY or are sent away to perform any type of military duty. The plan will cover who takes care of the children, financial arrangements, and ensure someone is appointed, briefed and prepared to take care of the children, if the soldiers provide for the care of their family members when military duties prevent the soldier from doing so. Please keep in mind that the Army Family Care Plan? Listed below, you will see what forms and letters are required in each packet. DA Form 5305 (Family Care Plan Checklist/Counseling)DA Form 5841 (Power of Attorney)DA Form 5840 (Certificate of Acceptance as Escort or Guardian)DD Form 1172 (DEERS Enrollment)DD Form 1172 (DEERS Enrollment)DD Form 5840 (Certificate of Acceptance as Escort or Guardian)DD Form 1172 (DEERS Enrollment)DD Form 1172 military parent) Soldiers are responsible for gathering this information after they are initially counseled about the requirements. The commander/designated person must verify the documents. Who Needs a Family Care Plan? Not all soldiers will need a Family Care Plan. It only pertains to single soldiers with kids, dual military members and parents with custody pursuant to a court order or separation agreement. Married Soldiers with kids and soldiers without kids DO NOT need a Family Care Plan. I recommend you start by reading Chapter 5-5 of AR 600-20. This provides the major information you need to know about these plans and is a great starting point. In addition, you should also read:AR 635-200AR 135-178AR 135-178 FCP Counselings or appoint someone to do soBe the sole approving authority authority authority authority and their packets are approved Must test the validity of the Family Care Plan by contacting the appointed guardianWill provide the soldiers who fail to properly manage their personal affairsShould consider initiating involuntary separations for soldiers who do not have an adequate Family Care PlanContact non-military parent (for divorced and single soldiers) to verify the plan with themKeep up to date of changes such as marriage, divorce, adoptions, death or disability of spouse, court decrees, assumption of foster care responsibilities, etc. As you can probably tell, there are lots of responsibilities for the commander. Don't make the mistake of trying to do everything yourself. If you need to, start a small committee of 3-5 Officers and NCOs to help you manage the plans for success with managing your unit's Family Care Plans.1. Separate soldiers who do not have an adequate Family Care Plan or don't manage their plan seriouslyAs a Unit Commander you are very busy. You cannot delegate your responsibility, but it would be wise to have a team of Officers and NCOs help you with this time consuming task. If I could redo my command time again, I would have placed more emphasis on these plans. They are important for the morale and readiness of your unit. Final Thoughts about Family Care Plans are very time consuming. In a unit of 120 Soldiers, you might have 10-30 Soldiers who require a plan. I think it's best to have a team of Officers and NCOs help you with the counseling and completing/reviewing the packets. I also believe that commanders should make it a top priority to make sure the plans are current, accurate and complete. And I also believe they should separate soldiers who do not or cannot keep a plan up to date. On a side note, I would love to hear from you.
